Dinner at La Casita Tapas and Wine Bar

Tuesday:

Morning:

Nature Hike in the Sierra de la Laguna Biosphere Reserve

The Biosphere Reserve is one of Baja's most beautiful but least explored areas. Part of an island off the coast of Baja 10 million years ago, the Reserve is home to an incredible diversity of plant and animal life, many of them endemic species; over 23% of plants and 10% of animals found in the Reserve are endemic to the area. We'll tailor our hike and discussion to the interests and abilities of the students.

Afternoon:

Volunteer with The Palapa Society or Hogar del Niño

Evening:

Star Gazing and Dinner

Beautiful evening of stargazing with local astronomer, followed by dinner at Santo Vino, Chef Dany Lamote's love letter to Baja. Aztec, Mayan and Greek mythologies explored while exploring the skies.

Wednesday:

All Day: Trip to San Vicente/Visit Mountain Potters

This is a fantastic opportunity to experience the traditional way of life of the mountain ranchers in Baja. We'll meet local potters in a true mountain oasis, and learn how Baja Californians have carved their homes and livings out the mountains for centuries. Doña Ramona will give us a pottery class while sharing her ranching way of life. She'll also give a cooking class, teaching students how to use the traditional metate, or grinding stone, to create beef or fish machaca. Doña Ramona and her family will share fantastic family recipes handed down through the years.

Afternoon: Volunteer with The Palapa Society or Hogar del Niño

Evening: Mexican Cooking Lessons with Chef Iker Algorri

Better pay attention because you have to eat what you make!!

Thursday:

Morning: Cliff Walk and Beach Picnic

This spectacular hike along the Pacific bluffs has terrific scenery featuring sea lions, birds, whales and cactus, as well as plenty of local history. Our reward is a picnic lunch on a pristine, palm-ringed beach where we can also swim, play soccer/Frisbee or just hang out.

Afternoon: Volunteer with The Palapa Society or Hogar del Niño

Evening: Dinner at Landi's. Home-style Mexican cuisine on lovely patio over palms.
